

TERA TRAIL MASTER CLASS

WHEN: January 26 – 29, 2012

WHERE: Sam Houston National Forest

COST: $75, due with enrollment form, MAKE PAYABLE TO AERC

The arrangements have now been made!! Our Trail Master class is now available for enrollment!! The class will be held Thursday, January 26, through Sunday, January 29, at the Sam Houston National Forest office at 394 FM 1375 West, New Waverly, TX 77358.

The class can accommodate 16 students. You must be both an AERC member and a TERA member to attend. The cost to you is $75 payable to AERC which is one-half the normal fee and one-third the fee that will be charged beginning January 2012. TERA is covering the additional cost of the class.

The class is conducted by Mike Riter of Trail Design Specialists, LLC. Mike has been teaching AERC Trail Master Classes for several years. The class will build 250' of new trail and conduct maintenance on 600' of existing trail. Many individuals who have taken the class promise that you will never look at a trail the same way again!

The Trail Master Committee voted that enrollment priority will be given to Ride Managers, then, in order of enrollment. To enroll, fill out the information below and return to:
